

Unit 1.4.3 Miracles of the Messengers, Worksheet

1. Which of the following does not represent a difference between miracles (mu'jizah) and sorcery?

- a. One cannot learn miracles, but one can learn sorcery
- b. Miracles are by will of Allah, sorcery is by the help of jinn
- c. Miracles prove a Prophet's claim to prophethood, sorcery is done by false prophets

2. Which of these are conditions for a mu'jizah?

- a. It goes against the laws of nature,
- b. It is proof that he is really a Prophet
- c. Only a Prophet can do it
- d. It only happens one time and never happens again

3. True or False: Other than Prophets, no one else can have miracles

4. Miracles are extraordinary events that marvel people about something related to their times? What was the issue of prominence in the time of Musa and what miracles amazed his people?

- a. They were interested in medicine, so he brought the dead to life
- b. They were very eloquent in their language, so he spoke to them like no one else could
- c. They were obsessed with magic, so he turned a staff into a real snake
- d. They worshipped idols, so he destroyed their idols.

5. Which of the following were miracles of the Prophet Muhammad? (some of these may not be on the notes and need research on your part)

- b. People heard stones speaking in his hand
- c. He fed many people with a little bit of food
- d. He split the moon
- e. He made a night journey to Jerusalem and the seventh heaven
- f. Water flowed from his fingers
- g. He has a pond in the Hereafter that Muslims will drink from and never be thirsty again
- h. The angel Jibreel washed his heart
- i. He will intercede on behalf of Muslims on the Day of Judgment
- j. A tree wept when he stopped leaning on it during the Friday sermon