

3.1.3 Worksheet

1. Name two difference between something dirty and something najis

2. Place a mark to the left of the items that are najis. The first one is done for you.

x	hair that has fallen off a cat		mucus
	dog		pus
	rotten pizza		urine
	dead animal		saliva
	vomit		pig
	alcohol		urine
	blood		hair of goat
	skin of dead goat		skin of dead snake
	skin of slaughtered sheep		skin slaughtered pig
	feces		dead cow
	slaughtered cow		slaughtered pig

3. If you pray with najasah on your body your prayer will not be _____.

4. If you pray with najasah on your clothes your prayer will not be _____.

5. A dog licked your pants and made it najis. How will you remove the najasah from your pants?

6. Someone fell was feeling sick and vomited. The vomit got on his clothes. How will he remove the vomit from his clothes?

7. When you prayed, you had a blood on your cheek that came from a cut on your own cheek. Is that prayer valid? _____

8. When you prayed, you had a blood on your clothes that came from a cut on your friend's arm. Is that prayer valid?

(c) 2014, Mariam Bashar, Deen Teens