

Unit 3.2.8 Worksheet 1

1. Fill in the blanks in this paragraph using words from the box. Use each word only one time.

Sunnah	leave	need to	must	ab'aad
do not need to	very regular	must not	sujud sahw

There are six more acts in prayer that we should do regularly because they are _____. Another name for them is _____. That means they are not fard, but one should try not to _____ them. If we forget any of them, we _____ repeat them. In fact, we _____ go back to the missed sunnah act or it will invalidate our prayer. Instead, if we miss one or more of the sunnah acts, we should perform _____.

2. Explain how you perform sujud al-sahw.

3. In the following table, place a mark in the small box to the left of each item that is a sunnah of prayer.

	Reciting the middle tashahud		Reciting al-Fatihah
	Reciting the surah after Fatihah		Sitting for the middle tashahud
	Raising the hands before ruku		Saying wa 'ala aali Muhammad after the last tashahud
	Saying Allahumma salli 'ala Muhammad after the first tashahud		Standing for the prayer
	Reciting du'a qunoot		The second assalamu alaikum
	Standing for du'a qunoot		Reciting a du'a when starting the prayer

4. What are the 6 sunnahs or ab'aad of prayer?

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

Unit 3.2.8 Worksheet 2

Write R in the small box to the left of the acts of prayer that are wajib or rukn of salah. Write S in the small box to the left of acts of prayer that are sunnahs or ab'aad. Some of the acts in the table are not R or S so leave those blank.

	Niyyah		The surah after Fatihah
	Standing		The opening Allahu akbar
	The second salam		Reciting the Fatihah (bimillahir rahmanir rahim is its first aya)
	Saying wa barik ala Ibrahim...		The middle "Allahumma salli ala Muhammad"
	Placing your right hand over your left		Saying subhana Rabbil a'la in sajdah
	Ruku' and tuma'ninah in it (repose/rest)		Standing straight(after ruku) and tuma'ninah
	Saying Allahu akbar when moving from one act to another		Two sajdahs and tuma'ninah
	The final "wa ala aali Muhammad"		Sitting between two sajdahs and tuma'ninah
	Raising your hands (raf al-yadain) when standing from ruku		The final sitting
	The middle sitting		Turning to the right when saying the first salam
	Sitting for the middle tashahud		The final salah on the Prophet
	The first assalamu alaikum (which ends the prayer)		The second assalamu alaikum
	Saying wa rahmatullah (after assalamu alaikum)		Doing all the acts in order
	Reciting out loud during fajr, maghrib, and isha		Reciting qunoot in fajr
	The middle tashahud		The final tashahud